Enthusiastic Mass Meeting of Citizens.

Warm Indorsement of the Investigating Committee and Its Report—The Herald Heartily Thanked.

A most enthusiastic mass meeting of the citizens and taxpayers of Newark was held last evening at Literary Hall, responsive to the call of the Committee of One Hundred on municipal investigation. The object of the meeting was to lay before the citizens a comprehensive report of the labors of the committee, the causes of its organization, the powerful influences used to try and destroy it, the proofs of official misconduct it unearthed and the results, as shown in the work of the Grand Juries, and the remarkable change for the better which has come over the administration of the city government.

Mr. Courier, chairman of the committee, called the meeting to order, briefly stated its objects, and nominated Dr. Dutcher as chairman. The Doctor was chosen, and at once called for the reading of the report of the special committee appointed to prepare it.

THE REPORT

was read by the chairman of the special committee, and evoked repeated rounds of hearty applause at all the telling points. It sets forth that last summer, when the facts became well known that taxation had steadily increased, and that officials excommunicated and excommunicated were through their connection with the city government, or rather the ring, a demand was made for an extensive investigation. The Common Council soon after appointed a committee of citizens who should be appointed accordingly; but on no meeting night, instead of keeping its promise, it squandered the resolution passed and empowered a committee of its own members to make the investigation, meanwhile confessing the charges made against it, and then, after a long delay, reporting that the Tax Receiver, John A. Broadwell, was discovered to be a defaulter to the amount of $4,000, and how much more they knew not. The removal of Broadwell, the resignation of a citizen committee, was demanded by Boss Stansbury, who gave as a reason that because the officials themselves had discovered and punished a robber they were the proper persons to go on with the investigation. But this dust upon the public eye, and the open opposition demanded a citizens' committee. They met in mass convention and chose one. At first the officials were

ALL SMILES.

As soon, however, as the investigators displayed an intelligent intention to delve into the mysteries of the finances the officials threw off their masks and boldly defied the people by giving a point blank refusal to allow the committee to examine the books of the accounting officer of City Auditor Joseph T. Dawes.

The whole press of Newark, with a single exception, joined issue with the officials and used the utmost endeavors to avert the threatened exposure. They succeeded in getting a citizens' committee appointed.

But it was not to be suppressed. It worked in, and on a mere comparison of the official yearly reports prepared and published by the officials or public information it was shown that the public funds had been handled in a most irregular manner, and that were found grossly at variance with good, plain, simple and honest business conduct—discrepancies which, if true, by themselves, could surely result in their being discharged and branded as incompetent, and, probably, as being dishonest.

Proofs were also produced showing that Committee Joseph C. Tammy had used his official knowledge, in violation of his oath of office, to get himself placed in a position of power and influence.

He was removed, and now, awaiting trial. The committee claim to have been duly vindicated by the grand juries and by the city government itself, which, in the meantime, the public work has passed over an entirely new leaf, straight down on big contracts, bribery and extravagance, and even lopping off notorious official corruptionists.

The report was warmly endorsed and unanimously approved. A motion by a committeeeman to submit the matter to the legislature for final discussion, which resulted in the committee being told to go on and fight the good fight to the bitter end.

THANKING THE HERALD.

The following resolutions, offered by Mr. George S. Smith, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the citizens of Newark are due and are hereby tendered to the Committee of One Hundred on Municipal Investigation, the sum of $100,000, who have unswervingly and in all other respects rendered their voluntary and successful labor in the best and interest of the community.

Resolved, That the citizens and taxpayers of Newark are due and are hereby tendered that portion of the local and metropolitan press which has so ably exposed the misdeeds of the ring, and on the community by the so-called "irregularities" and misconduct of derelict officials. These are our thanks for their powerful services in the cause of reformation in our official places.

AN INSANE STATE DEFAULTER.

RICHMOND, Va., April 3, 1874.

A commission of lunacy was held to-day upon Colonel James Mayo, State Treasurer. After a session of nearly five hours the commission adjudged Mayo a lunatic, and ordered that he be sent to an asylum for treatment.
